Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 26, 2013

Malaysia’s September Highlights

LOS ANGELES – The month of September is set to offer local and foreign visitors of Malaysia a series of exciting sports ar cultural events. Below are some of the highlights:

Sarawak Regatta 2013

With the theme ‘Race for Harmony’ this year, the Sarawak Regatta 2013 involves 44 boat races including 5 races under th international events. The main highlight of the event is the Dragon Boat Race, which involves participants from Taiwan ar Hong Kong. Aside from boat races, there will be side attractions like “Brooke Swim”, kayaking and duck catchin competitions.

Date: September 6-8, 2013
Venue: Kuching Waterfront, Kuching, Sarawak

Royal Pahang Billfish International Challenge 2013

Yes, the Royal Pahang Billfish International Challenge 2013 only accepts Marlin (1000 pts) and Sailfish (600 pts) in the annual off-shore catch and release fishing competition. Angling enthusiasts from as far as the United States, the Unite Kingdom and Japan are coming to participate in this adventurous and eco-friendly sport. The billfish are on their activ migration passing through the Rompin area to Australia. Come and catch them all!

Date: September 13-15, 2013
Venue: Pantai Lanjut, Rompin, Pahang

Kokol International Paragliding Race 2013

Glide across the sky, feel the earth beneath you and finally swoop down like an eagle at the Kokol International Paraglidin Race 2013! The event has attracted many local and foreign pilots from as far as Russia, Poland and Switzerland every yea due to the beautiful natural landscape of Mt Kinabalu. Gliders will definitely enjoy the panoramic view of the coastal area Sabah.

Date: September 16 – 18, 2013
Venue: Kampung Kokol, Kota Kinabalu, Sabah
Website: www.sabahtourism.com

1Malaysia Lantern Tourism Festival 2013

The Central Market of Kuala Lumpur will be gaily decorated with thousands of colorful and brightly lit lanterns lining up th streets to celebrate the 1Malaysia Lantern Tourism Festival 2013. Also known as the Mid-Autumn or Mooncake Festiva highlights of the Lantern Festival include the lantern procession, acrobatic performances, as well as festive delights such a moon cakes and baby yams. It’s a celebration not only for Malaysian Chinese but everyone in the country as well!

Phoca PDF

Date: September 19, 2013
Venue: Central Market, Kuala Lumpur
Website: www.motac.gov.my

Labuan Arts Festival 2013

Labuan Arts Festival 2013 is back with a combination of arts and music as the major attractions of the event. The festival aim to promote the unique local cultures especially the ethnicities in Borneo including Labuan, Sabah and Sarawak. Highlights the festival include the Top Spinning Tournament (gasing pangkah), Graffiti Spray Art Competition and Pearl of Labua Busking Competition. Besides that, visitors will also be able to enjoy stage shows by local artists, cultural dances ar handicraft exhibitions.

Date: September 27 – 29, 2013
Venue: Labuan International Seasport Complex

For more information, please contact Young Yu at yyu@saeshe.com.

###

Phoca PDF