EXPERIENCE MALAYSIA IN MARCH 2015

March is the time for Formula 1 Malaysian Grand Prix and 1Malaysia GP Sale—a great month for lots of action on Malaysian racing and shopping circuits!

Besides these two signature tourism events, March is also the month for multi-colored hot air balloons in various shapes and sizes to take to the Putrajaya skies in the annual Putrajaya International Hot Air Balloon Fiesta. Meanwhile, the Le Tour de Langkawi 2015 race from Langkawi to Kuala Lumpur will keep cycling fans on the edge of their seats.

Besides sports, culture enthusiasts will have plenty to fill their days with events such as Mah Meri Ancestors Day Festival, Chap Goh Mei Celebration, and Chingay Parade Festival.

Full lineup of events and festivals happening throughout Malaysia in the month of March:

Putrajaya International Hot Air Balloon Fiesta (HABF)

Enjoy a spectacular scenery as beautiful helium balloons decorate the Putrajaya's skyline during the Putrajaya International Hot Air Balloon Fiesta. Photo enthusiasts and selfie lovers will have the time of their lives snapping away during this colorful spectacle, while other visitors can experience viewing Putrajaya from a bird's eye view with the 'Helicopter Joy Ride' attraction! Don't forget to bring your picnic mats to the picnic area, where you can pick up a bean bag and choose a spot to lounge with a stunning view of the Putrajaya lake, while enjoying your pre-ordered meal from the 'Balloon and Breakfast' menu.

Mah Meri Ancestors Day Festival

This annual festival of the aboriginal Mah Meri attracts many international visitors. The Mah Meri tribe of Selangor celebrate Hari Moyang (Ancestor's Day), a celebration about giving thanks to the spirits for all the good things that had been bestowed upon the villagers. It is celebrated by offering prayers and blessings to their ancestors especially to Muiyang Gadeng, a female spirit guardian. Mah Meri people are skilful with craftwork; their weaving skills are seen showcased in the neatly woven skirts, headbands and sashes worn during the celebration.

This three-day festival features a special dance called Mayin Jo-oh, to invite the ancestral spirits to join the festivity. The men would wear wooden masks and perform with movements to reflect their daily routine that includes fishing and farming, while the women make music from bamboo, viola, drum, and brass gong.

Organizer: Mah Meri Cultural Village

Date: March 7

Venue: Mah Meri Cultural Village, Pulau Carey, Selangor

International Drum Festival

Drums are one of the signature products in Malaysia's tourism products. This festival showcases various drum performances and drum-making workshops to share this art of craft-making and playing to the new generation. This program not only promotes Malaysia's great culture but is also a platform to hand down drum-making knowledge to the younger generation.

Without this effort, Malaysia may lose the art and know-how of this craft that is popular amongst tourists.

Organizer: Kelantan Tourist Information Counter (TIC)
Date: March 14-15
Venue: Stadium Sultan Muhammad IV Grounds, Kota Bharu, Kelantan
