

Held annually since 1985, The Penang Bridge International Marathon caters to runners from local and international grounds. The marathon is recognized for its captivating sight of the sunrise as it reveals the panoramic view of the "Pearl of the Orient." Thousands come together to race across The Penang Bridge, the third longest bridge in the world.

Phoca PDF