

Gunung Ledang is a mystical mountain. According to legend, it was home to a princess who captivated the heart of the 15th century Sultan of Melaka. It is popular for its walking and climbing trails as well as the Sagil Waterfall at the base of the mountain.

Getting there: The entry to the mountain is near Sagil along the Tangkak - Segamat trunk road. Take the Muar-Segamat bus and alight at Sagil. By car, head for Tangkak in Muar, or Segamat town.*

Phoca PDF