

The grand building is an architectural wonder that was completed in 1866. The original furniture of the palace was made in England and ordered by Sultan Abu Bakar in 1866. Built in the Renaissance style by local artisans, the palace became the Royal Abu Bakar Museum in 1982, but today, it is still used for state ceremonies and official functions.

Phoca PDF