

Johor is the southern gateway into Peninsular Malaysia and is linked to Singapore by road and rail. Its vast landscape is characterized by plantations of pineapple, rubber, coconut, and oil palm on the fringes of which nestle tranquil kampungs and quaint fishing villages. Retaining much of its natural splendors, the state has miles of golden sand beaches and beautiful offshore islands with clear waters, which are excellent for diving. The state is also endowed with several forest reserves.

Places of Interest

- Endau Rompin National Park
- Gunung Ledang
- Kota Tinggi Waterfalls
- Ayer Hitam
- Royal Abu Bakar Museum
- State Secretariat Building

Phoca PDF