

A cable car ride takes visitors to Langkawi's second highest peak - Mount Mat Cincang, which features a spectacular view of the island. On clear days, one can also see parts of Thailand to the north and Indonesia toward the south-west. The cable car ride up the hill takes about an hour and can be highly exhilarating. There are great views of the hillside flora and an occasional glimpse of the wildlife and spectacular birds.

Phoca PDF