

Also known as the Palace of Culture, the Istana Budaya is an imposing blue and white building featuring traditional Malay and contemporary elements. It has been hailed as one of Kuala Lumpur's most beautiful modern buildings and has been the site of many international shows and concerts.

Getting there: It is located at Jalan Tun Razak, just outside the city center. The best way to get here is by taxi.*

Phoca PDF