

Almost every country has its own version of Chinatown and Kuala Lumpur's version, Petaling Street, is undoubtedly one of the most popular tourist attractions here. Stocked with leather goods, t-shirts and loads of food, Petaling Street is the right place to make some cheap yet exciting purchases. If you're looking to pick up items like watches, sunglasses, wallets, perfumes and other such accessories, there is no better place. Bargaining is a must on any items you may want to buy. The colorful and lively evening market stays open until midnight.

Getting there: Take the Putra LRT to the Pasar Seni stop and walk over. It is also a short walk from the central bus station in the city.
