

Kuala Lumpur originated as a shanty-mining outpost for the tin trade in the 1800's at the confluence of the Gombak and Klang Rivers. Today, KL, as it is popularly known, is a bustling metropolis. It is the federal capital of Malaysia and is the principal center of commerce, politics, entertainment and international activities. Kuala Lumpur serves as the pulse of the nation, with a population of 1.5 million people.

Places of Interest

- Petronas Twin Towers
- Petaling Street
- Menara Kuala Lumpur
- KLCC Park
- Sultan Abdul Samad Building
- Merdeka Square
- National Art Gallery
- Central Market

Videos about visiting Kuala Lumpur

Phoca PDF

Discover the diversity and multi-faceted cultural history of Kuala Lumpur through traditional dance with

Mickela Mallozzi

Phoca PDF