

No trip to Melaka would be complete without seeing its antiques and curios, best found in the shops along Jonker Street. In fact, Melaka has many small shops selling just about everything, from handmade shoes to bamboo bird cages at very reasonable prices.

Getting there: Centrally located at Melaka town at Jalan Hang Jebat. It is a short walking distance from the river and easily accessible from any part of town by car or trishaw.*

Phoca PDF