Located 15.5 miles along the Seremban-Kuala Pilah road, Ulu Bendul is a popular spot among picnickers and travelers stopping by for rest. Its natural setting amidst the forest and waterfalls on top of Angsana Hill (Bukit Angsana) makes it a favorite spot for nature lovers, campers and the like. For hikers and mountain climbers, the 2,450 ft-high Gunung Angsi offers an exhilarating challenge. For cool dips and fishing, Sungai Batang Terachi, which flows through the park, offers a welcome escape. Parking spaces and shops are readily available at the entrance.

Getting there: 35 minutes by taxi from Port Dickson and 5 minutes before the Royal Palace.
