

Negeri Sembilan, means “nine states," because it once consisted of nine separate districts, each ruled by a Malay Chieftain. Seremban, its capital, is well connected by road and rail to Kuala Lumpur, which is only 31.06 miles away. Negeri Sembilan is noted for its strong Minangkabau influences, which are evident in its kampung houses and official buildings.

Places of Interest

- Cultural Handicraft Complex
- Seri Menanti Royal Museum
- Ulu Bendul Recreational Park

Phoca PDF