

Ask any Malaysian where to eat good food and they will tell you to go to Penang's Batu Ferringhi, located on the northern shores of the island. It is well known for its seafood cuisine. Many restaurants line the beachfront, serving up enticing meals each evening.

The area is also famed for its nightlife. After a meal at the hawker stalls, why not go burn all the calories off by dancing the night away at one of the many nightclubs here?

Getting there: Take a bus or taxi from Komtar to Batu Ferringhi beach and then leisurely stroll down the long street to avoid missing out on any attraction.
