

Across the Manjung Straits, opposite Lumut, is the bustling fishing village of Pulau Pangkor, the largest of nine islands in a small group of islands. Pangkor, with its quaint mix of fishing settlements and resorts, is a fascinating holiday venue. It presents visitors the rare chance to reside near fisher folk and observe their lifestyle or to simply enjoy the fine beaches and resort amenities.

Phoca PDF