The Millennium Monument is the first national monument to be built in Putrajaya. It was constructed in the shape of the national flower, the Bunga Raya, and has a pointed pillar. The monument serves as a medium for the younger generation to learn about the country's history, struggles and achievements.Millennium Monument

Getting there: Located at the Dataran Warisan, the monument, along with other attractions in Putrajaya, are best discovered through a tour to the city. Tours can be arranged with agents in Kuala Lumpur.

Phoca PDF