The Tamu weekly bazaar at Kota Belud celebrates a carnival atmosphere. Every Sunday, village horsemen dressed in traditional garb ride in from the countryside to trade their produce. The Bajau tribesmen also demonstrate how to make parangs, a local form of the machete.

Getting there: Local transport is available to Kota Belud, 46.60 miles northeast of Kota Kinabalu.

Phoca PDF