Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah Mosque

This is the biggest mosque in Malaysia and Southeast Asia. Its prayer hall can accommodate up to 7,000 people. Popularly referred to as Malaysia's "Blue Mosque" because of its shiny blue dome and four minarets, it also has special channels that collect rainwater for ablutions.

Getting there: From KL, take the Federal Highway towards Shah Alam/ Klang and exit at Shah Alam town. Buses also leave from the Klang bus terminal in Kuala Lumpur.*
