

Noted for its pure emerald waters and white sand beaches fringed by swaying palm trees, this is another place with dazzling marine life and coral formation. Long kept a secret by lovers of the underwater world, this island offers many secluded areas, which are unspoiled and great for divers.

There are facilities for snorkeling, wind-surfing, kayaking and boating. Pulau Kapas is a 30 minute boat ride from Marang.

Phoca PDF