Where to Eat in Georgetown

Food Courts
Georgetown's sprawling food courts contain dozens of hawker foods with seating.

New World Park
Penang specialties can be found under one massive roof for street prices. Each food counter is labeled with what local dish can be purchased. It is located in the northwest of the city at the junction of Burma Road and Swatow Lane.

Red Garden
The convenient location on Jalan Penang is worth the extra effort. A confusing array of carts and counters serve up excellent fare for prices cheaper than those found in restaurants. The Red Garden is an excellent place to find lok-lok, assam laksa, rojak, and other classics as well as Thai, sushi, and even Filipino food. The Red Garden opens for dinner at 4:30 p.m.

Cebil Market Food Court

This classic food court is located on Lebuh Cecil southeast of the city center. Cecil Market is a good place to try laksa, char kway teow, and roast duck. The food court is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
